

Media Contact:

Ken Strobeck, Executive Director
League of Arizona Cities and Towns
602-258-5786
kstrobeck@azleague.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ARIZONA CITIES AND TOWNS CELEBRATE YEAR-ROUND WITH FESTIVALS & EVENTS

PHOENIX (July 9, 2013) - With the conclusion of Independence Day celebrations and early summertime festivals, cities and towns aren't slowing down with their event planning. Communities work year-round to produce events that bring together both residents and visitors alike to celebrate everything from major holidays to small-scale commemorations.

Arizona cities and towns know that festivals, fairs and events aren't just about having a good time. These celebrations are an important component of prosperous and viable communities: they attract tourism, enhance economic growth and create a positive quality-of-life for residents.

To stay updated and informed on the many goings-on in Arizona's cities and towns, visit www.azcitieswork.com/city-events for a full listing of upcoming events. From athletic competitions and recreational activities to music festivals, historic parades and everything in-between, the comprehensive calendar features events from cities and towns state-wide.

About the League:

The League of Arizona Cities and Towns is a voluntary association of all the 91 incorporated cities and towns in the state of Arizona. It provides policy and legislative advocacy, information and inquiry services, along with publications and educational programs to strengthen the quality and efficiency of municipal government. It was founded in 1937 to serve the interests of cities and towns and to preserve the principles of home rule and local determination. For more information, visit www.azleague.org

###